

Chicago's Seven Sisters College Consortium Presents

SOUTH AMERICAN WINE TASTING AND TAPAS FROM CAFÉ IBERICO

Saturday, October 15, 2005 - 5:30 PM until 7:30 PM

The Wine Discount Center
1826½ North Elston Avenue
(street parking is available)
Chicago

South American wines have gone through a renaissance in recent years. Once known for their inexpensive jug wines, Chile and Argentina are now producing wines of exceptional quality in all price ranges. Don't miss this fun opportunity to taste some of the best wines that this up and coming region has to offer. In addition to tasting familiar varietals such as Sauvignon Blanc and Chardonnay, we'll also try lesser known wines such as Malbec and Carmenere - two grape varietals that are particularly well suited for the arid South American climate. We'll finish off the event with a sampling of the blockbuster 2001 Don Melchor Cabernet Sauvignon which recently earned a 95 point score from the Wine Spectator -the highest score that they have ever awarded to a South American wine! For more information about The Wine Discount Center visit www.winediscountcenter.com. Tapas will be provided by Café Iberico which has received rave reviews. Hispanic Magazine called it the "best Hispanic restaurant in Illinois." Barbara Sullivan of the Chicago Tribune wrote "Café Iberico is top in tapas!" Chicago Magazine called it "our favorite." Come do your own taste test and have a fun evening!
